World Burn Congress Scholarship Program Provided by the Firefighters Burn Institute

The Firefighters Burn Institute (FFBI) may provide a limited number of education scholarships for Shriners Hospital and UC Davis Medical Center staff to attend the Phoenix Society's "World Burn Congress" (PWBC). This year's conference will be held in National Harbor, MD from October 4-7, 2023.

Each scholarship amount will be based on the need of the applicant and is intended to assist the recipient with registration, hotel, and travel expenses. The FFBI scholarship is not intended to cover the full cost of attending WBC.

We will require verification of conference attendance from each scholarship recipient after WBC in the form of hotel folios/receipts and scholarship recipients will be asked to complete a survey about the event. Falsified information will result in a return/forfeit of all scholarship monies awarded and potential to be disqualified from future scholarships.

HOW TO APPLY:

Any Shriners Children's—Northern CA or UC Davis Medical Center staff is eligible to apply for scholarship consideration. In order to be considered for a scholarship through the FFBI, each applicant will need to provide a Letter of Request including ALL of the following information. Requests with missing information will not be considered:

- Full name, mailing address, primary phone number, and email.
- Have you attended WBC in the past?
- Why are you applying for a scholarship to attend WBC?
- What do you hope to gain from attending WBC?
- Outline your financial needs.
- Are you requesting any additional aid from other sources?
- What are your expected travel dates?
- Describe your past involvement, if any with FFBI.
- List who you were referred by, if applicable.

FFBI will review each application and make final decisions on scholarship amounts and recipients. Careful consideration will be given to each applicant.

Due Date: August 20, 2023

Completed requests must be submitted to Valorie Smart at:
3101 Stockton Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95820 or valorie@ffburn.org or 916-455-4376 (Fax)
