

FIREFIGHTERS BURN INSTITUTE

CLIFF HASKELL PERPETUAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

In 2005, the Firefighters Burn Institute started a scholarship program for burn survivors who have participated in programs, events and/or services offered by the Firefighters Burn Institute and who were treated inpatient at a medical burn facility for twenty-four hours or more.

Up to four $2,000 scholarships will be awarded each year, payable in two installments. Applicants must be pre-enrolled and accepted for full-time or part-time attendance at a college, university, community college, trade school, or technical school before any money is distributed. Recipients must maintain a minimum 2.5 GPA and/or remain in good standing with their program throughout the school year or vocational program. This scholarship may be awarded to an applicant a maximum of twice.

The following items must be submitted for your scholarship request to be considered.

- Completed Cliff Haskell Perpetual Scholarship application.
- Official high school transcript/GED, including credits and GPA OR official college, university, trade/technical school transcripts and GPA.
- Proof of school or program acceptance/enrollment.
- Two letters of recommendation from any the following: camp directors or counselors, high school or college counselors, teachers, professors, principals, employers, coaches or other program leaders.
- An essay (minimum of 500 words) addressing how being a burn survivor has impacted your life and how the scholarship will help you achieve your personal and professional goals.

To be eligible for this scholarship, applicants must:

- Have status as a burn survivor who has participated in programs, events and/or services offered by the Firefighters Burn Institute and who were treated inpatient at a medical burn facility for twenty-four hours or more;
- Be a high school senior year at the time of application or have completed high school or received a GED or;
- Show acceptance to an accredited college, university, community college, or trade/technical school on a full-time or part-time basis and be enrolled for the current school term. FFBI will verify each recipient's school program enrollment prior to disbursement of scholarship funds.

ROLLING APPLICATION DEADLINE:

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis from January 2 to November 30 annually.

Applications received earlier in the cycle may be at an advantage. A decision on your application will be made within three months from receipt, assuming it is received within the consideration period of January to November of that year.
